Credit Valley Welcomes New Board Chair

Tuesday, June 12, 2007

For Immediate Release (Mississauga, ON): After twelve years of volunteer service, Cheryl Englander stepped down as chair of the Credit Valley Hospital Board at the hospital's Annual General Meeting last week. Mrs. Englander was chair for the last year.

Taking her place is a financial analyst with an international relations background, Geoff Watson, who in his "day" job is vice president, Fixed Income at TD Asset Management.

Early in Mr. Watson's career, he was an intern in the United States Senate, an Advisor and Member of the Canadian delegation to the United Nations General Assembly in New York, and a defence and foreign policy researcher for the Canadian Institute of Strategic Studies; before joining TD Asset Management, Geoff was a fixed income securities analyst with CIBC World Markets between 1997-2007.

Mr. Watson has been a member of the hospital Board for seven years. His term as Board Chair is for two years.
